Welcome to this charming English cottage nestled in the heart of North Berkeley. This captivating residence built in 1915 was designed by Walter H. Ratcliff, Jr, a well-known Berkeley architect. The home has been meticulously cared for, preserving its authentic charm while incorporating modern upgrades such as new foundation, remodeled kitchen & bath, new roof, converted garage & more! The main floor has 2 bedrooms and a full bath. Venturing upstairs is a third bedroom and a charming plus room creating a cozy retreat or a private office. The living & dining rooms are filled with the glow of afternoon sunshine and provide a perfect space to enjoy the ever-changing filtered views of the bay & its wonderful sunsets! Adjacent to the dining room is a well-appointed kitchen featuring top of the line appliances & custom cabinetry. One of the highlights of this home is the seamless indoor/outdoor flow. Open the dining room doors & you'll step onto a delightful deck. Stepping down from the deck is a grassy area adding to the sense of privacy & providing ample space for outdoor activities. The converted garage can be a great office or a place to just relax. Nearby is Live Oak Park, Farmers' Market, Gourmet District, & Solano Ave Shops. A welcoming neighborhood, you will feel right at home!
